Colgin Cellars was in the vanguard of the California "cult" phenomena. The wine created a groundswell of interest with its debut 1992 vintage, and with the gifted talents of the likes of Helen Turley, Mark Aubert, David Abreu, and Alain Raynaud on board, Colgin soon became one of the most heralded wines ever produced in California and captured the attention of collectors all over the world. Perhaps most influential was the vision and energy of founder Ann Colgin, whose artistic sense and standards of excellence served as the inspiration and guiding force from the onset.

Join us for this rare opportunity to spend an evening with Ann and Joe as we taste Colgin Cellars' groundbreaking cabernet sauvignon from Herb Lamb and Tychson Hill Vineyards, the Bordeaux styled Cariad that debuted in 1999, and her latest efforts, IX Estate Red and IX Estate Syrah.
